Overview. The earliest mention of the Huangdi Neijing was in the bibliographical chapter of the Hanshu ?? (or Book of Han, completed in 111 CE), next to a Huangdi Waijing ???? (“Outer Canon of the Yellow Emperor”) that is now lost. In Chinese mythology Shennong taught humans the use of the plow together with other aspects of basic agriculture, the use of medicinal plants, and was a god of the burning wind (perhaps in some relationship to the Yan Emperor mythos and/or slash-and-burn agriculture, in which the ash produced by fire fertilizes the fields). The divine right of kings, was a political and religious doctrine. It meant that a monarch was given the right to rule by God alone. His authority could not be questioned because he ruled in God's name. Editor's Introduction to the Roman Confutation. After the Lutherans presented the Augsburg Confession, on June 25, 1530, the Roman rulers and leaders met on June 26, and on June 27 presented the Emperor with a report that called for a response to the Augsburg Confession.
